Johnathan C. Duncan

PARTNER

Johnathan represents public and private companies in a wide range of matters, including capital markets transactions, mergers and acquisitions, securities law compliance, corporate governance practices, and U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission reporting and disclosure requirements.

Practices

Corporate & Securities
— Capital Markets
— Mergers & Acquisitions
— Special Purpose Acquisition Companies (SPAC)
— Corporate Governance & Securities Regulation

Education

State University of New York Buffalo Law School, JD, Buffalo Law Review, Electronic Systems Editor, Buffalo Public Interest Law, Program Fellow (1999), 2002

University at Buffalo School of Management, MBA, 2002

Adelphi University, BA, 1998

Offices

New York

Phone

212.745.9539

Email

johnathan.duncan@afslaw.com

Johnathan has a broad range of experience assisting clients with mergers and acquisitions, initial public offerings, follow-on offerings, corporate governance issues, and the preparation of 1933 and 1934 Act filings.

Johnathan is part of ArentFox Schiff's China Practice and his representative clients span a wide range of industries and sectors.

Client Work

- Advising companies on mergers and acquisitions.
- Advising companies on financing transactions.
- Serving as outside securities counsel to several public companies.
- Advising public companies regarding SEC regulations and corporate governance matters.
- Representing public company clients in IPOs and follow-on public offerings of securities.

Bar Admissions

New York
New Jersey