Brett focuses his practice on representing owners, REITs and others in the acquisition, financing, leasing, and disposition of real estate in all asset classes. He also has assisted lenders and clients on transactions in the energy sector involving real estate.

Brett applies diligent attention to detail to his practice as well as a calm demeanor under pressure – two skills he honed both in his pro bono work and during his time as an aspiring professional golfer.

Client Work

- Represented a REIT in the $225 million refinancing of 25 industrial assets located in Connecticut, New Jersey, and New York.
- Represented an owner in acquiring and financing multiple luxury multi-family/mixed-use assets located in Florida.
- Represents a client with an over 500-property portfolio and assists in managing of its leases at these properties.
- Represents a public benefit corporation and has helped them provide over $150 million in bond funding for low-cost housing projects in New York State over the past 18 months.
- Facilitated the $27 million sale of a client's property in New York City.
- Assisted a not-for-profit corporation in leasing office space in the metropolitan-Chicago area.

Pro Bono

As a Pro Bono Scholar, Brett worked in the Veterans Practice at the New York Legal Assistance Group and was involved in document review, document preparation, and drafting briefs.
